Email From Anita:

Hi all. My apologies. I have been in training all week and have spotted internet access. My calendar apparently forgot to remind me of this meeting.

Sorry sorry.

In terms of member, please note the following updates:

Website:

Nick and I have been discussing a few alternations to the website. Namely, our personal website is great, but when a simple “YPT, Houston” search is query in Google, the first result is the YPT National Portal. Our page there is a bit confusing, and the idea of having the page more closely reflect Austin’s was discussed.

<http://yptransportation.org/chapters/ypt-houston/>

<http://yptransportation.org/chapters/yptaustin/>

Biggest Differences:

- 1) Logo
- 2) Hyperlinks to topics
 - a. Board of Directors – currently this topic is the main emphasis on the Houston Page. For non-member’s why does this matter?
 - b. Join our Mailing List – Hyperlink – let’s make it easy
 - c. Facebook and Twitter – Hyperlink
- 3) Want to learn more information and keep up with upcoming events and meetings? Visit our official webpage at
 - a. Recommend moving this to the bottom of the page. The human eye naturally travels from the upper left-hand side of the page to the lower right hand side.
 - b. The most important information should be placed on the lower right-hand side. It’s the last thing people will look at. In fact, when I was talking to Nick about linking this site to our official webpage, I hadn’t even noticed that I simply glossed over it! As in, it was there the whole time, and as a user, I failed to notice it.

Member Sign-up Sheet

We proposed having a member sign-in sheet at each meeting where users would check off, Member or Non Member. If non-member, we would add a third column indicating request for contact information where I could follow up regarding benefits of membership.

Benefits of Membership

This is still something I’m grappling with, and over the last several weeks (when time permits) trying to assemble a “Membership Strategic Plan”. Essentially, I am looking at:

- 1) Who is currently part of our organization – from what I can tell, we are mainly private
- 2) Why? What do we offer people in our organization to stay? Join?
 - a. Elevator speech

Nick has given me access to the member portal which I'm still exploring so I can give you some numbers as to who has joined, what they paid,etc. However, one idea generated that the Board might find of interest is:

- 1) Board Member Sign-up: As Board members, we commit to successfully recruit X members a year.

Thoughts?

Sorry, again for missing the call this month.

Best,

Anita
